

Contact Agency(name , phone #, fax #)
Tupelo Police Department
662-841-6546 Capt. Bart Aguire

Case #

Name: Jennifer Lynn Jackson Floyd

Sex: Female

Race: White

Age when missing: 19

Date Missing: April 18, 1988

Birth Date: 1969

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Brown

Height: 5'4"

Weight: Slender

Previous fractures or broken bones:

Clothes last seen wearing: A green and white sweater, light green slacks and high-top Pony tennis shoes. a red cloth purse

Location last seen (city, town, county) Hancock Fabrics in Tupelo, Mississippi

Circumstances: last seen at her job at Hancock Fabrics in Tupelo, Mississippi on April 18, 1988. After receiving a phone call at work, she departed the store crying. Her car was found a block away from West Main Street and Coley Road in Tupelo at a Mighty Mart gas station

Work or Hobbies: Hancock Fabrics

Additional comments: She left behind a one year old daughter, resided in the 1000 block of Chickasaw Trail in Tupelo in 1988
Floyd was last seen at her job at Hancock Fabrics in Tupelo, Mississippi on April 18, 1988. She got a phone call at work and left the store crying at 9:30 a.m. She has never been heard from again. She was carrying a red cloth purse at the time of her disappearance.

Floyd's vehicle was found at a Mighty Mart gas station on west Main Street the day after her disappearance. She left behind a one-year-old daughter and her mother does not believe she would have willingly abandoned the child. Floyd resided in the 1000 block of Chickasaw Trail in Tupelo in 1988. Few details are available in her case.

Source:

Crime Stoppers of Northeast Mississippi

Tupelo Police Department

Lee County Sheriffs Office

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal