

Floyd was last seen at her job at Hancock Fabrics in Tupelo, Mississippi on April 18, 1988. She got a phone call at work and left the store crying at 9:30 a.m. She has never been heard from again. She was carrying a red cloth purse at the time of her disappearance.

Floyd's vehicle was found at a Mighty Mart gas station on west Main Street the day after her disappearance. She left behind a one-year-old daughter and her mother does not believe she would have willingly abandoned the child. Floyd resided in the 1000 block of Chickasaw Trail in Tupelo in 1988. Few details are available in her case.
