On Friday, October 12th, 2007, the Verona Police Department took a report on a missing woman. The victim, Demakia Phinizee, was reported missing by her sister. The investigation revealed that the last time anyone saw Phinizee was at around noon, the day of the 12th, at her place of employment at the Fillmore Center in Tupelo.

Phinizee's red 2005 Pontiac Grand Am (2 door) was recovered later that evening at Warfield Apartments on the 2600 block of Jackson Street in Tupelo. At that time witnesses observed the vehicle enter the apartment complex as a high rate of speed. The vehicle was being driven by a black male, wearing a white tee-shirt and blue jeans. The driver exited the vehicle and ran behind the apartments.

Demakia Phinizee is described as a black female, 25 years old. She is 5'1" tall and weighs around 156 pounds. She is a security guard at the Fillmore Alternative School in Tupelo. She was last seen wearing blue jean Capri's with pockets in the sides, red flip-flops and a tan shirt with red around the sleeves and neck.
