

Authorities had dragged the Biloxi Back Bay in their search for Margaurite, but they had no indication that her body was in the back bay.. they were trying to cover all bases.

Her neighbors had reported her missing on a Friday . Police discovered traces of blood in her home.

There was a definite sign of a struggle at her home and someone tried to clean up the disarray at her home. There were no signs of forced entry into her home, and nothing appeared as taken from the home.

Traces of blood were also found in her car which was located abandoned at the Biloxi Holiday Inn on Friday.

Margaurite also went missing with her pet pit bull.

she was the widow of Air Force . Col. James Mayden and she was an avid and competitive golfer.

Relatives had established a $1500 reward fund at the time.

She was 61 Yrs. old.

Clarion Ledger